Remember When: Wade Whimsies

For a time, opening a box of Red Rose Tea would result in the delightful discovery of a wee porcelain animal. Known as Wade Whimsies, they were created by Wade Ceramics in England and first sold in 1954. Their popularity and charm led to a partnership with the North American tea company, which began including the tiny treasures with their products as a free promotional gift. Though Red Rose continues to release new series of Wade Whimsies online, the figurines no longer come with every box of tea. However, secondhand shoppers know to keep their eyes peeled for the itty bitty critters, as they've become collectibles in the antique market.

45 Years of 'Star Wars'

Audiences first visited "a galaxy far, far away" on May 25, 1977, with the release of the first "Star Wars" film. Every year, Star Wars Day is celebrated on May 4, since the day's date (May the Fourth) is a play on the phrase used throughout the series to wish good fortune on others: "May the Force be with you."

Florists on Wheels

Sharing the streets with food trucks are members of the latest mobile business trend: flower trucks! Bringing fresh-cut blooms to farmers' markets, craft fairs, private parties and other public events, these floral fleets allow customers to assemble their own unique bouquets on the spot. Since many flower trucks are refurbished from vintage vans, campers, pickup trucks and buses, they offer additional aesthetic appeal for folks wanting to snap a springtime photo for social media.

Call of Remembrance

The 24 notes that sound out the bugle call known as taps will be played at numerous events this Memorial Day. The solemn melody has been around since the Civil War, when it was adapted from existing bugle calls that signaled the end of the day. Upon hearing the call, soldiers knew to extinguish their lamps and get ready for bed.
